

John Brown University

Leader Scholars Covenant Agreement 2009

The John Brown University faculty and staff value the following goals for you, our Leader Scholars:

- To join and invest in the community of leader scholars at JBU
- To realize and develop your God-given leadership potential
- To participate eagerly in all leadership program courses and events
- To show yourself as an active, purposeful leadership learner
- To clarify and refine your leadership skills and strengths
- To seek out leadership learning opportunities beyond LSI
- To investigate and eventually take on leadership opportunities and roles both on and off-campus
- To become a leader in God's kingdom, at JBU and beyond

As a Leadership Scholar, during your time in LSI, we expect that you will:

- Earn and maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or above during your freshman and sophomore years; 3.0 during your junior and senior years
- Attend all required LSI events
- Successfully complete the two required core LSI courses, with a grade of C or better
- Investigate and prayerfully consider leadership roles on and off-campus
- Abide by JBU's lifestyle expectations (including meeting all chapel attendance requirements)

Your signature indicates that you accept this scholarship and in return, agree, in good faith, to honor this Leader Scholars Covenant Agreement.

Print your full name

Your Signature

Today's Date